

The Top Ten

(reasons why you might want to be a civil servant...)

Susan F. Hallowell, Ph.D.
Director, Transportation Security Laboratory
Office of Research and Development
Science and Technology Directorate

March, 15 2007

Homeland
Security

Transportation Security Laboratory

William J. Hughes Technical Center

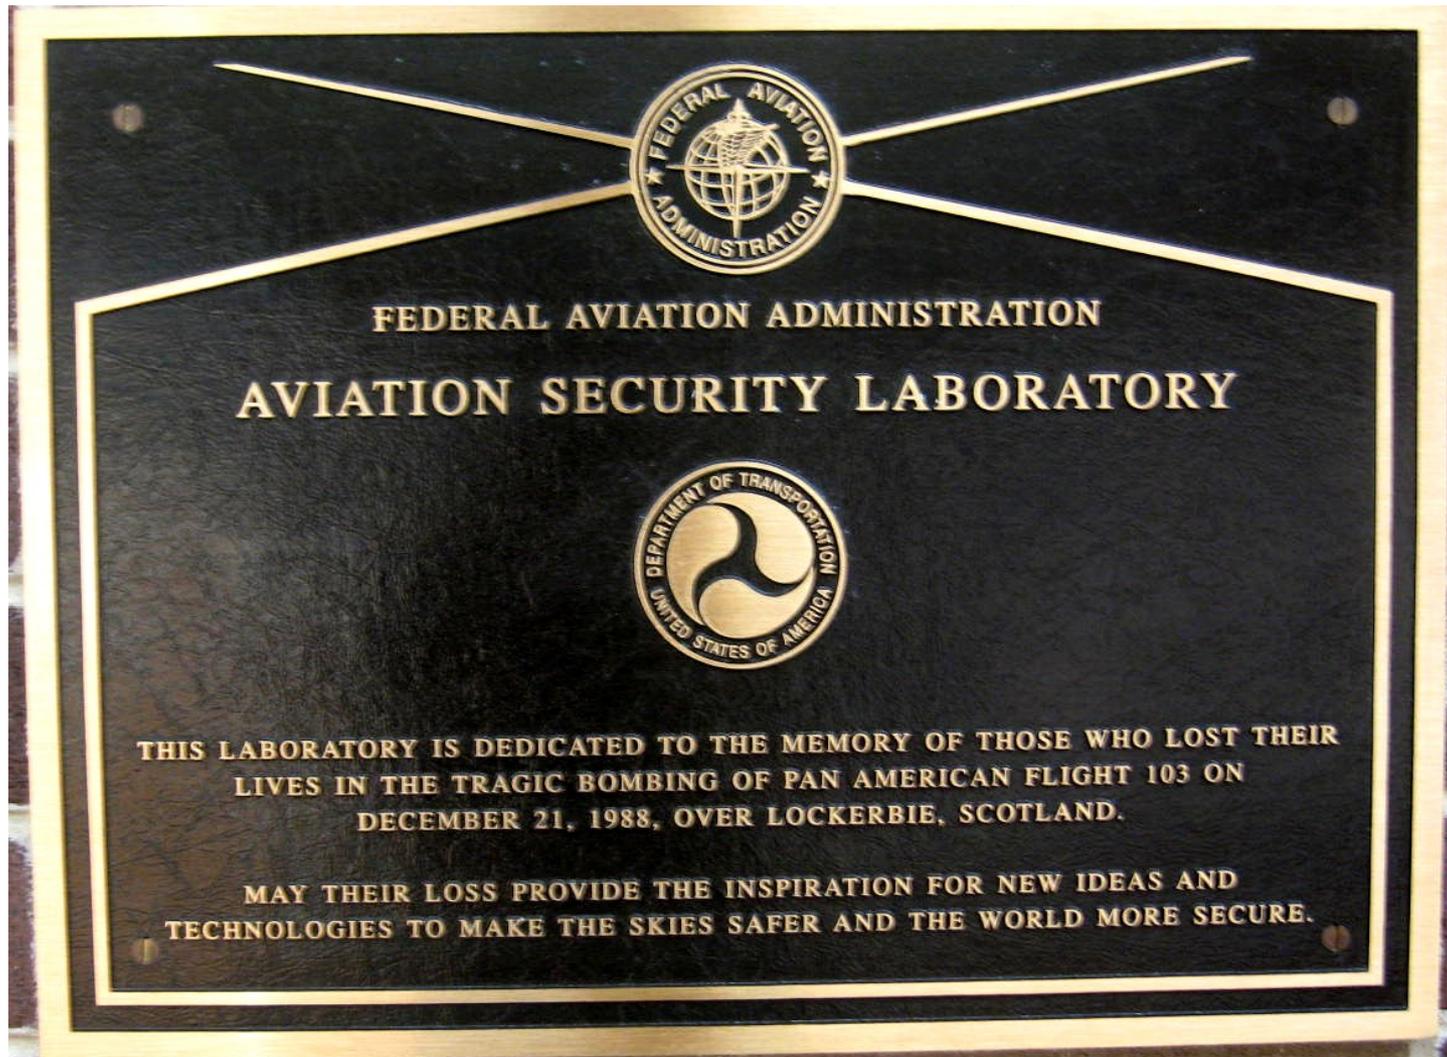

Atlantic City International Airport

NJ 08405

Homeland
Security

Transportation Security Laboratory

Homeland
Security

1. You get to meet interesting people

My spouse

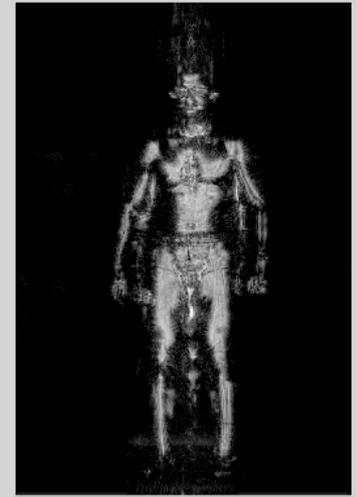

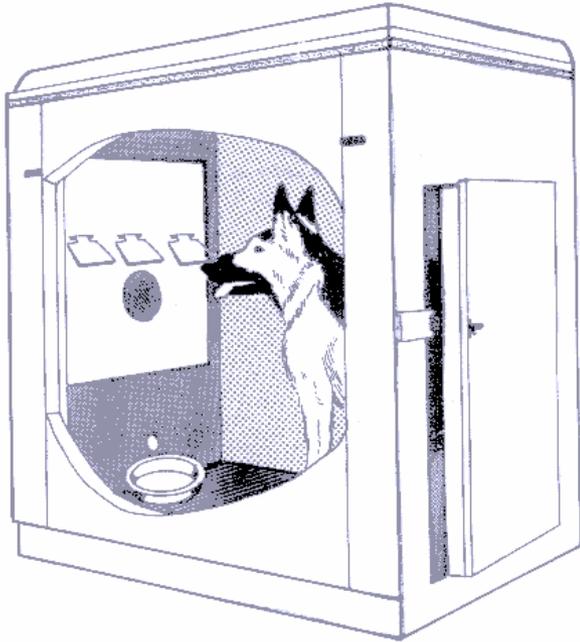

Nobel Laureates

People with interesting jobs

Homeland
Security

2. You get to do cool things

Frame: 1 Rotation: 0.0-deg

Homeland
Security

3. You get to go interesting places

South Africa to explore detection of Land mines with K-9s

Brussels consult with NATO

U.K. Explosives Detection

Italy Switzerland

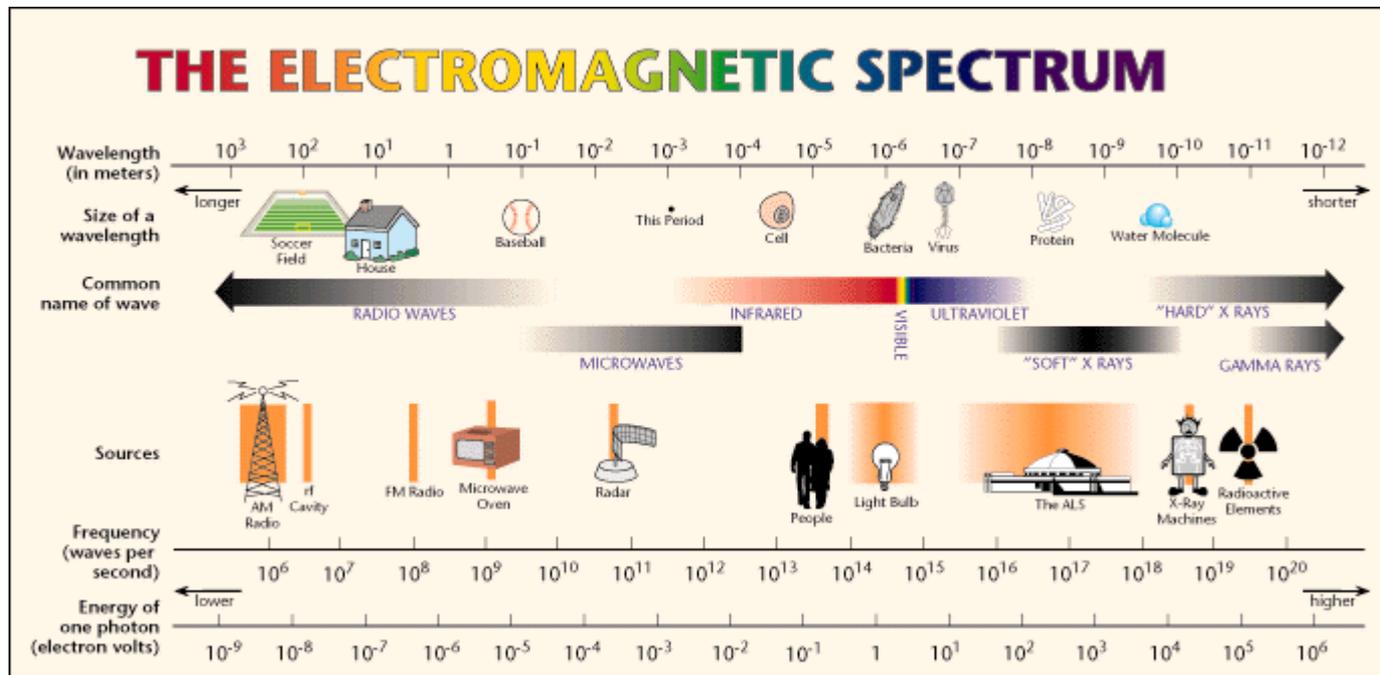

Thailand

Greece

Homeland
Security

4. Mission: You can apply your unique talents to aide in a tangible benefit to society

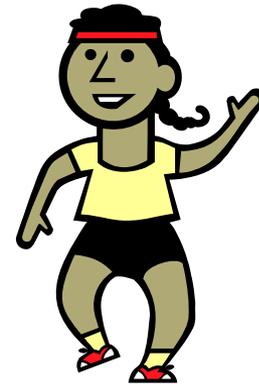

Homeland Security

5. Education opportunities

Homeland
Security

6. Balance between life and work

7. You get to do meaningful things

- Emerging Technologies
 - Explosives Screening of passengers using trace portals
 - Imaging Technologies

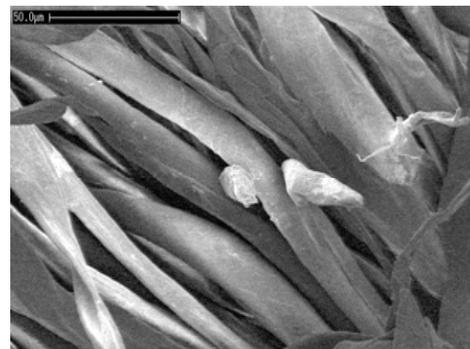

Walk through trace explosives detection portal

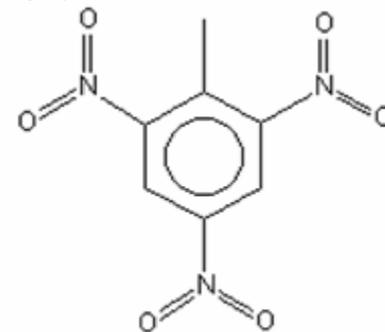

Homeland
Security

8. Intellectual challenge

C-4 particle on cloth at

400X

Vapor molecule of TNT

Trace Program:

- Explosives
- Chemical Agents
- Biological Agents

Homeland
Security

9. Your work can make a difference

Save lives

Improve the quality of life

Homeland
Security

10. You can do something for your country!

Homeland
Security

Homeland Security

Homeland
Security