Homeland Security Management Institute

- What is your COE?
- The Homeland Security Management Institute at Long Island University is a member institution of the National Transportation Security Center of Excellence. The Homeland Security Management Institute offers a fully accredited 15-credit graduate-level Advanced Certificate in Homeland Security Management and a 36-credit Master of Science in Homeland Security Management as well as a series of training courses and professional development seminars

Homeland Security Management Institute

- What are the Center's goals?
- HSMI is “designed and delivered by professionals, for professionals” with the goal of creating the practitioner-scholar: the highly experienced professional who understands the on-the-ground realities of homeland security practice as well as the academic theories and principles which impact the safety and security of our Nation and its people.

Homeland Security Management Institute

- Education
- HSMI's education is designed to wed theory with practice and practice with theory. Taking a case-study approach and a seminar format, our outstanding faculty of highly experienced homeland security practitioners encourage exploration, collaboration, dialogue and debate in a collegial academic learning environment that recognizes and integrates the valuable experience our faculty and students bring to the discipline.
