Mission

To foster a secure and reliable energy system that is environmentally and economically sustainable, to be a responsible steward of the Nation's nuclear weapons, to clean up our own facilities, and to support continued United States leadership in science and technology.

We aspire to achieve the following vision:

The Department of Energy, through its leadership in science and technology, will continue to advance U.S. energy, environmental, economic, and national security by being:

- A key contributor to ensure that the United States has a flexible, clean efficient, and equitable system of energy supply and end-use with minimal vulnerability to disruption;
- A vital contributor to reducing the global nuclear danger through its national security, nuclear safety, and nonproliferation activities;
- A world leader in environmental restoration, nuclear materials stabilization, waste management, facilities decommissioning, and pollution prevention;
- A major partner in world class science and technology through its National Laboratories, research centers, university research, and its educational and information dissemination programs; and
- A safe and rewarding workplace that is recognized for business excellence, nurtures creativity, is trusted, and delivers results.
