Appendix C

Training Categories

For management and reporting purposes, DOE has classified employee training into the following four major categories:

Training Category	Definition
Compliance	Training that is required by applicable DOE directive, Federal, or state statutes and regulations, and/or DOE contractual requirements.
Development	Training that yields new competencies for the current job or career advancement.
Directed by Management	Training, other than compliance training, that is deemed to be required by management.
Job Related	Training that enhances current proficiencies.
