

U.S. Department of Energy - Oak Ridge Office
Human Capital Assessment Group
Training Course Bulletin

---

Course Name: Registered Environmental Manager (REM) and Certified Safety, Environmental and Emergency Manager (CSEM) Workshop

Course Number: 000673

Session Number: 0020

Description: This REM plus CSEM is an intensive two-day workshop.

Session Topics:

- EHSSE-Environmental, Health, Safety, Security and Emergency Management Review and Discussion
- Safety Management – Integrated Safe Work Practices
- EHS Site Evaluations – Programs, Checklists and Considerations
- PHMSA, DOT & Air Shipping, Receiving, Handling and Transport of HAZMAT
- Environmental Management – Materials Use, Waste Generation and Regulated Programs
- Environmental Site Characterization – Plans, Methods & Procedures, Considerations for Site Evaluators
- Environmental Site Assessment – Phase I, Phase II and Phase III and Remediation Options Plans, Methods & Procedures

REM Certification: At the end of this workshop you will sit for the 2 hour and 45 minute REM exam.

REM Recertification: All those presently certified, will receive newly updated information and are not required to take the exam again.

CSEM Certification: Upon successful completion of workshop participation, quizzes, class activities and assignments, participants will be awarded the Certified Safety, Environmental and Emergency Manager credential.

Audience: Federal employees seeking REM certification and recertification

Vendor: National Registry of Environmental Professionals (NREP)

Instructor: Donald Shafer

Location: Building 2714, Room G10

Date: January 5-6, 2011

Time: 8:30-4:30
Slots: 20
Cost: Funded by HCAG

To register, access HCAG Homepage and forward a completed electronic Training Request Form. For additional information, call (865) 576-1082.

(Bulletin No. 1207-913)

