

U.S. Department of Energy - Oak Ridge Office
Training and Development Group
Training Course Bulletin

Course Name: UNDERSTANDING PROJECT MANAGEMENT – BREAKING THE CODE

Course Number: 000062

Session Number: 0066

Description: This three-day course is designed to introduce participants to DOE's project management system and processes in order to improve their performance as members of the project management team.

By the end of this course, all participants should be able to: be familiar with the essential principles and concepts of the discipline of project management as it applies to the work and culture of DOE; identify DOE's project management system and processes; and more completely understand their performance requirements in the functional areas in which they respond and interact with DOE's Project Directors, project staff and project contractors.

Audience: All DOE Federal employees

Vendor: Colleague Consulting, LLC

Instructor: James Szenasi

Date(s): March 22-24, 2011

Time: 8:30-4:30

Location: Oak Ridge Federal Office Building, Room G059

Slots: 30

Cost: Funded by HQ

To register:

Federal employees should access the TDG homepage and forward a completed electronic Training Request Form <http://www.ornl.gov/tdd/tddreq.htm>.

For additional information, call (865) 576-1082.

(Bulletin No. 0209-930)
